NOTE BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL

After the consultations held on 12 December 1991, the President of the Security Council made the following statement on behalf of the members of the Council to the media, in connection with the item entitled "The situation in Cyprus":

> "In the light of the discussion at the informal consultations of members of the Security Council, it was concluded that the necessary agreement did not currently exist in the Council for a decision to be adopted on a change in the financing of UNFICYP. The members of the Council agreed to keep this issue under urgent review."
